WINDOW & DOOR PROFILES RETAIL LEADERS
WITH 2010 DEALERS OF THE YEAR AWARDS

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 20, 2010—Window & Door, the leading magazine serving the window and door industry, has announced its 2010 Dealers of the Year award winners. This year's program honored two companies as the top Overall Excellence winners. In addition, we recognize six Focused Excellence category winners—window and door retailers and distributors that stand out in the areas of marketing, installation, customer service, retail/showroom program, community service, and innovative thinking.

"It's truly impressive to see the innovative business strategies coming from the dealer segment of the window and door industry," says Christina Lewellen, senior editor for Window & Door. "This year has been tough for all businesses, and each of the 2010 winners in the Dealers of the Year program exemplify how hard work and creative approaches to the marketplace can overcome even the toughest of economies."

Dealers of the Year awards are presented to the following companies:

Overall Excellence

Leadership Serving the Homeowner Market—FAS Windows & Doors, Winter Park, Fla.
Leadership Serving the Professional Market—General Millwork Supply Inc., San Marcos, Calif.

Focused Excellence Categories

Innovative Thinking—Associated Building Supply Inc., Oxnard, Calif.
Retail Program/Showroom—Hancock Lumber (Home Again), South Portland, Maine
Installation—Custom Remodelers, Lino Lakes, Minn.
Community Service—Hullco Exteriors, Chattanooga, Tenn.
Marketing—Energy Secure Solutions, Brownsburg, Ind.
Customer Service—American Window & Door, Woodland, Wash.

"Our 2010 Dealers of the Year not only represent the best of our industry, they all offer great stories to tell," says John Swanson, Window & Door editor/associate publisher. "There are lessons to be learned from all of them."
